

Prairie Urban Gardens Reading List

July 2008

Adam Judith. 2002. Landscape Planning: Practical Techniques for the Home Gardener. Firefly Books Ltd., Toronto ON. 224 pp.

Currah R., A. Smreciu and M. Van Dyk. 1983. Prairie Wildflowers: An Illustrated Manual of Species Suitable for Cultivation and Grassland Restoration. University of Alberta. 290 pp.

Flanagan June. 2005. Native Plants for Prairie Gardens. Fifth House Ltd., Markham ON. 198 pp.

Flanagan June. 2007. Native Plant Source List. Alberta Native Plant Council, Edmonton AB. 23 pp. www.anpc.ab.ca

Flanagan June and Donna Fremont. 2002. The Prairie Gardener's Sourcebook: A Guide to the Best Plants, Seeds, Products, and Information for your Garden. Fifth House Ltd., Markham ON.

Knowles Hugh. 1989. Woody Ornamentals for the Prairies. University of Alberta. 279 pp.

Mather Jan. 1994. Designing Alberta Gardens: The Complete Guide to Beautiful Gardens. Red Deer College Press. 176 pp.

Moss Ezra H. 1983. Flora of Alberta. 2nd Edition revised by John G. Packer. University of Toronto Press. 687 pp.

Pahl M.D. and A. Smreciu. 1999. Growing Native Plants of Western Canada: Common Grasses and Wildflowers. Alberta Agriculture, Food and Rural Development, and Alberta Research Council. ISBN 0-7732-6138-9. 118 pp.

Pearman Myrna and Ted Pike. 2000. NatureScape Alberta: Creating and Caring for Wildlife Habitat at Home. Red Deer River Naturalists and Federation of Alberta Naturalists. 200 pp.

Toop Edgar W. and Sara Williams. 1991. Perennials for the Prairies. University of Alberta and University of Saskatchewan. 188 pp.

Williams Sara. 1997. Creating the Prairie Xeriscape: Low-maintenance, water-efficient gardening. University Extension Press, University of Saskatchewan. 247 pp.